Trust Powers

The Trust Agreement confers on the Trustee all of the trust and trustee powers contained in the Washington Trust Act, RCW Ch. 11.98 and does not contain restrictions or limitations of such powers, except as expressly noted herein. The trustee(s) and any successor trustee(s) are authorized to transact any business on behalf of the trust with the Credit Union. This includes but is not limited to opening, maintaining, and closing deposit accounts and safe deposit boxes, borrowing on behalf of the trust or guaranteeing obligations of the trustor(s) or beneficiaries, and granting a security interest in trust assets to secure obligations of the trust, the trustor(s) or the beneficiaries.

Levy/Attachment

If this is a revocable trust and the Credit Union receives any garnishment, levy, or other form of execution against the trustor, or if the trustor(s) owe money to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may treat all accounts (including safe deposit boxes) held by or on behalf of the Trust as if they were held by the trustor(s) individually.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the Trust is currently in full force and effect, the foregoing statements are true and correct, and that the Trust has not been revoked, modified or amended in any manner that would cause any representation contained in this Certification to be incorrect. If the trust is a testamentary trust, I certify that I have attached a true copy of the death certificate of the trustor to this certification.
